

BRING A WHITEBOARD OR SEVERAL BIG SHEETS OF PAPER TO THIS WEEK'S SESSION. IF YOU CAN, SCATTER THESE AROUND THE SPACE. YOU'LL USE THEM TO WRITE DOWN THE GROUP'S IMAGES OF WORSHIP.

MIKE SUGGESTS WE THINK of worship as more than a church service. How might that change your ideas about the purpose of going to church?

WHEN HAVE YOU EXPERIENCED a sense of worship outside of church?

Working in groups of three or four, have participants talk about what else they might be "worshipping" in their lives. What else do they assign worth to?

Invite group members to come up to the whiteboards or sheets of paper and write or draw one of their responses to this question. When everyone has contributed, talk about the different ideas we all have about worship.
