

PHYLLIS SUGGESTS THAT THE HISTORY OF THE SACRAMENTS IS LIKE A TAPESTRY THAT'S BEEN WOVEN TOGETHER THREAD-BY-THREAD OVER CENTURIES OF CHRISTIAN HISTORY...

...WE'RE STILL WEAVING THAT TAPESTRY TODAY, EVERY TIME WE PARTICIPATE IN A SACRAMENT.

Write DOWN SOME THOUGHTS
ABOUT A TIME WHEN TAKING
COMMUNION OR WITNESSING A BAPTISM
FELT LIKE A TRULY Spiritual experience FOR YOU. If
THAT'S NEVER HAPPENED, WHAT WOULD IT TAKE FOR THOSE SACRAMENTS
TO HOLD DEEPER
MEANING IN your life?

